FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

In the Matter of:

800 Data Base Access Tariffs and the
800 Service Management System Tariff

CC Docket No. 93-129

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Allnet Communication Services, Inc. (Allnet) hereby requests an extension of 30 days from the current deadline for filing comments on direct cases of February 14, 1994 to allow the BOCs to provide to Allnet, and other parties, copies of the computerized cost models, pursuant to the recently released order redirecting them to do so. (SCIS Release Order, released January 31, 1994).<sup>1</sup> In the SCIS Release Order, the Bureau denied Bell Operating Company (BOC) request for waivers that sought relief from the Commission's directive that each local exchange carrier disclose its computerized cost model on the record if the justification for its rates is based on the use of the model. To date, none of the BOCs has provided such information to Allnet (or presumably any other party). Thus, Allnet is unable at this time to provide comments on the direct cases of any of the BOCs who relied on the SCIS model.

The SCIS Release Order did not provide a deadline by which the information must be released to the parties. Allnet must presume that the BOC's delay is caused by either their preparation for the release of the information or the preparation for the filing of further waivers. Until the BOCs either provide the information or the alternative arrangements are made, it would be unreasonable to require the filing of comments on the BOC's direct cases in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,
